

A calm mind is the main ingredient of success

When Mark Zuckerberg asked Steve Jobs what he should do to become successful, he was stunned at the answer. Steve Jobs told him to go to an ashram in India! What does an ashram provide that a business school doesn't?

The Bhagwad Gita speaks of serenity of mind as the main ingredient of success. When the mind is calm, intellect is sharp, and action is brilliant. However intelligent or talented you may be, if the mind is agitated, intellect cannot think properly, and action is flawed. No business school in the world addresses this issue.

The Gita, written 5,000 years ago, addresses the Arjuns of today: dynamic, ambitious young adults seeking excellence. It prescribes the formula for success.

Do you feel deprived or blessed? Are you driven by deficiency motivation? Then, you are bored, which leads to frustration and failure. When you are deeply grateful for the abundance you have been gifted with, you develop the irresistible urge to give, contribute, and add value to people. You become creative, motivated, and successful. Abundance is a state of mind unconnected with material assets. Sudama was a pauper but always felt abundant. The richest man may feel deprived.

Identify your passion, talent, or gift. Set a higher goal in that field. Work in a spirit of service and sacrifice for that ideal. Selfish action leads to mediocrity. The thought of self is the greatest obstacle to success. The world's achievers had a vision beyond mere personal profit and glory. Don Bradman did not play cricket for money. Ustad Bismillah Khan played the shehnai for the sheer love of it. Einstein was dedicated to Physics.

When your attention shifts from the world to the Beyond, you perform selfless action. Eric Liddell, the outstanding athlete nicknamed the 'flying Scotsman', won the Olympic Gold against all odds. His motto was – God made me to run, and I will run for the Divine. When asked how he ran the 400m so fast, his answer was simple. He said – I run the first 200m as fast as I can. God enables me to run the balance 200m.

Action is under your command. Fruit is dependent on factors beyond your influence. Dependence on the fruit makes you a slave to the world. A century in cricket or a promotion at work is not under your control. But nobody can take away the fact that you are an outstanding person. Find fulfilment in the action. Give your best to it. You gain merit. You become independent of the result, and success comes to you. Such a person is defined as a sannyasi – a person of renunciation. Not a celibate priest or one who has retired to the Himalayas.

How do you feel towards your colleagues and fellow workers? Does the adrenaline of competition fire your ambition or are you motivated by the soft power of togetherness and love? Love has a magical effect. You see the best in others. This motivates them to give their best and you build strong teams.

Drudgery turns to revelry. A difficult task gets done in an environment of fun, laughter and camaraderie. And happiness increases.

[Practice Exercise]

- Red/blue coloring of words in the sentence indicates subject verb relationship; where 'red' denotes 'subject' and 'blue' denotes 'verb'.

@mocks_wallah

Vocabulary

1. Stun (verb) – Shock, astonish, surprise, overwhelm, amaze हैरान करना
2. Serenity (noun) – Calmness, peacefulness, tranquility, stillness, composure शांति
3. Intellect (noun) – Intelligence, reasoning, understanding, mind, wisdom बुद्धि
4. Agitated (adjective) – Disturbed, upset, restless, uneasy, anxious व्याकुल
5. Flawed (adjective) – Imperfect, defective, erroneous, faulty, mistaken त्रुटिपूर्ण
6. Address (verb) – Deal with, focus on, handle, tackle, attend to निपटना
7. Seek (verb) – Look for, search for, pursue, aim for, strive for खोजना
8. Deprived (adjective) – Lacking, disadvantaged, without, needy, impoverished वंचित
9. Drive (verb) – Motivate, propel, push, stimulate, inspire प्रेरित करना
10. Deficiency (noun) – Lack, shortage, shortfall, insufficiency, scarcity कमी
11. Lead (to) (verb) – Result in, cause, bring about, give rise to, generate वजह बनना
12. Abundance (noun) – Plenty, wealth, affluence, excess, large quantity प्रचुरता
13. Irresistible (adjective) – Tempting, alluring, overpowering, undeniable, compelling अपरिहार्य
14. Urge (noun) – Desire, impulse, drive, craving, compulsion प्रेरणा
15. State (noun) – Condition, situation, position, status, phase स्थिति
16. Material asset (noun) – Material assets can be natural or human-made, and their value can be cultural or economic. भौतिक संपत्ति
17. Pauper (noun) – Poor person, beggar, indigent, destitute, have-not गरीब व्यक्ति
18. Abundant (adjective) – Plentiful, ample, copious, overflowing, bountiful प्रचुर
19. Mediocrity (noun) – Averageness, ordinariness, lack of distinction, normalcy साधारणता
20. Sheer (adjective) – Pure, absolute, total, complete, unqualified पूर्ण
21. Against all odds (phrase) – Despite difficulties, overcoming challenges, in spite of everything कठिनाइयों के बावजूद
22. Motto (noun) – Slogan, maxim, principle, philosophy, saying मूल मंत्र
23. Divine (noun) – God, deity, higher power, the Almighty दिव्य शक्ति

24. Slave (noun) – Servant, bondservant, captive, follower, dependent गुलाम
25. Renunciation (noun) – Rejection, abandonment, disavowal, giving up, relinquishment त्याग
26. Celibate (adjective) – Abstinent, unmarried, single, chaste, refraining from marriage ब्रह्मचारी
27. Adrenaline (noun) – Excitement, energy, stimulation, rush, thrill उत्तेजना
28. Soft power (noun) – the ability to obtain preferred outcomes by attraction rather than coercion or payment.
29. Drudgery (noun) – Hard work, toil, labor, grind, tedious work कठिन और नीरस कार्य
30. Revelry (noun) – Celebration, festivity, merrymaking, enjoyment, fun उत्सव
31. Camaraderie (noun) – Friendship, fellowship, companionship, solidarity, team spirit मित्रता

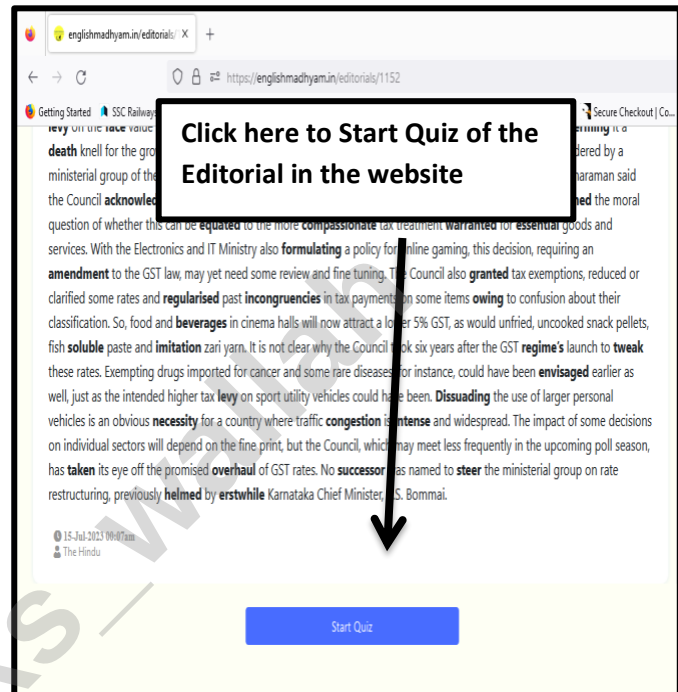

Summary of the Editorial

1. Calm Mind and Success: A calm mind is essential for success as it sharpens intellect and improves actions.
2. Steve Jobs' Advice: Mark Zuckerberg was advised by Steve Jobs to visit an ashram in India for success, highlighting the value of inner peace over formal business education.
3. The Gita's Guidance: The Bhagavad Gita emphasizes serenity of mind, which it considers crucial for achieving success in life.
4. Mental Agitation: Even with great intelligence and talent, an agitated mind leads to flawed thinking and actions.
5. State of Abundance: Success stems from a sense of abundance, which is a state of mind and not linked to material wealth.
6. Gratitude and Creativity: Gratitude for life's blessings leads to creativity, motivation, and the drive to contribute to others.
7. Passion and Higher Goals: Success comes when you identify your passion, set high goals, and work selflessly towards them.
8. Selfishness and Mediocrity: Selfish actions lead to mediocrity, while those who work beyond personal gain achieve greatness.
9. Role Models: Achievers like Don Bradman, Ustad Bismillah Khan, and Einstein followed their passions selflessly, not for personal profit.
10. Selfless Action: Eric Liddell's dedication to his running for a higher purpose illustrates the power of selfless action in achieving extraordinary success.
11. Focus on Effort, Not Results: Success lies in focusing on your actions, not the results, which are beyond your control.
12. Fulfillment in Action: Finding fulfillment in giving your best effort makes you independent of outcomes and leads to success.
13. True Renunciation: A successful person, or sannyasi, is defined by detachment from the outcome, not by physical withdrawal from the world.
14. Collaboration Over Competition: Working with love and togetherness fosters better relationships, strong teams, and enhances productivity.
15. Joy in Work: Love for colleagues and creating a positive, joyful work environment transforms drudgery into enjoyable and effective teamwork.

Practice Exercise: Banking Pattern Based

Click here to Start Quiz in the App

Click here to Start Quiz of the Editorial in the website

Click here to download App

Click here to visit website

Learn Vocabulary Through Reading Articles

English Madhyam