

The Frog Who Burst

Once some frogs saw a buffalo grazing near their pond. They had never seen one before.

"What an animal!" one gasped. "He is so huge. And look at his magnificent curving horns!" "Yes, I quite agree," said another. "He makes me feel very small and insignificant."

When they hopped back home, they told their other friends about the buffalo.

"Ha!" said one who had not seen the buffalo. "You may think you are much smaller than him. But not me!"

He took a deep breath and held it, swelling to the size of a pear.

"Was he this big?" he asked.

"No," cried the others. "Much bigger."

So the frog took another big gulp of air puffing up to the size of a watermelon.

"This big?" he croaked weakly.

"No!" shouted the others.

The frog kept on inhaling air, swelling bigger and bigger and bigger, till he exploded with an ear-splitting BANG.

Moral: Don't try to be something you can never be!
